Two feature articles will relate to the lectionary readings each month. One will explore a specific doctrine found in the readings, while the other will answer a question people may have from the readings that relates to life today. Highlighting these articles will encourage your members to dig deeper into the Scriptures.

THIS MONTH’S TOPICS:
Is the Christian God different from all the others? (p. 26) | The Trinity (p. 28)

HOW CAN YOU USE THESE ARTICLES?
- Mention the articles after your service to encourage reading by your members.
- Focus one of your Sunday or small group Bible studies on that topic for the month.

EXPLORE OTHER JANUARY 2020 ARTICLES

With the 47th anniversary of Roe v. Wade this month, your members may be thinking about the importance of God’s gift of life. Two articles touch on this topic. One introduces you to a post-abortive woman and provides tips to help Christians show the forgiveness God offers. In the other, you’ll meet a man who was a failed abortion—a man whose life God blessed (p. 34).

A new Question & Answer column starts this month. Dave Scharf, a professor at Martin Luther College, New Ulm, Minn., will answer reader questions. He will also write a corresponding Bible study that digs deeper either into the Q&A topic or into another topic discussed in the issue.
