what's inside

Several features this month focus on the season of Lent. With congregations concentrating on Jesus' passion as well, these articles can provide additional opportunities for your members to grow in their faith. Consider highlighting different articles in your worship folder or after your Lenten services each week for readers to dig deeper into God's Word.

- "Dust you are . . ."—a look at receiving the sign of the cross on Ash Wednesday (back page).
- "Lent means love"—a study on how the words Lent and love fit together (p. 10).
- "Ever been tempted like that?"—a review of the temptation of Jesus and what it continues to teach us today (p. 28).
- "Parent conversations"—a discussion of the question, "Should I give something up for Lent?" (p. 16).

WELS CONNECTIONS

Outreach camps are this month's theme. WELS Connection highlights a STEM camp at Bethlehem, a mission church in Richland Center, Wis. Forward in Christ is featuring photos of WELS camps—like this art camp at Sure Foundation, Queens, N.Y.—in "This is WELS" (p. 4). You also can read about a teen group from Wisconsin that helps mission churches with their outreach camps (p. 23).

EXPLORE MARCH 2020 ARTICLES

Our cover story this month introduces you to Spencer Beach, a WELS member from Canada who suffered third- and fourth-degree burns to 90 percent of his body after being engulfed in a flash fire.

COVER

Did you know that 1 in 5 teenagers live with a mental health condition? This month, teen writer Emmilee Hillier shares her struggle with depression (p. 12). Counselors from Christian Family Solutions also offer help for parents whose children are battling different mental health problems. And don't miss "A Bible story just for me" (p. 31), which focuses on Elijah and his struggle with depression (1 Kings 19).
