what's inside

As your congregation observes Lent and Jesus' passion this month, highlight these articles from Forward in Christ in your display graphics, church newsletter, service folders, and social media for your members' further reflection:

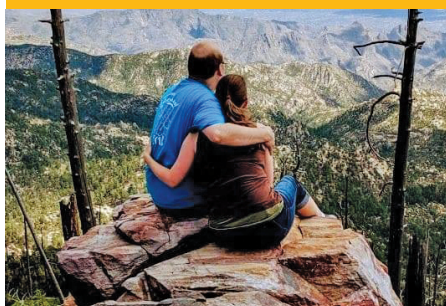

- See humans' first fall into sin and God's promise to restore the peace that was lost (p. 5).
- Remember Jesus' humanity on his way to the cross (p. 34).
- Cheer with the crowds as Jesus rides into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday (p. 22).
- Walk with Jesus through his betrayal, arrest, and surrender in the Garden of Gethsemane (p. 10).
- Feel relief from sin and death with Jesus' victory cry, "Tetelesta!" (back page).

WELS CONNECTIONS

In March's WELS Connection, visit The Way Lutheran Church, a home mission congregation in Fredericksburg, Va., and see how it is impacting its community through proclaiming the gospel message. Then in Forward in Christ, meet Will Jones, a new member of The Way, who not only found true hope in that gospel message but also now shares it with others in his life (p. 20).

EXPLORE MARCH 2024 ARTICLES

Depression can strike anytime, anywhere, and anyone. A pastor shares his struggles—and his hope found in Jesus (p. 7).

How do you let the gospel light shine in your life? Two laypeople tell what they do in this month's "Free in Christ" article (p. 12).

Should our children be leaders or followers? "Parent conversations" offers thoughts for all Christians to consider (p. 16).

"WHAT IF IT'S true..." virtual Bible study

Read this month's study (p. 32) and participate in a live Bible study with the author on March 26.
